VASUDHAIVA KUTUMBAKAM KI OAR 4.0

Jyot is thrilled to unveil the 4th edition of its flagship conclave series, Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam ki Oar, which is set to take place between 16th - 22nd January 2026, spanning a week in the bustling financial capital of Mumbai. We also envision an immersive and interactive exhibition that showcases the confluence of ancient Indian wisdom and modern global perspectives.

Building on the remarkable successes of our previous three conclaves, this edition promises a grander scale, broader reach, and deeper impact.

The theme for this edition of the conclave is Sankraman Kaal.

MUMBAI 7+ DAYS SESSIONS | 50+ PANELLISTS | 25,000+ SQ.FT. EXHIBITION AREA

GEOPOLITICAL THEME
SANKRAMAN KAAL AND LESSONS FROM THE PAST

As the old order fades and a new one emerges, we have a crucial opportunity to shape a future that is free, fair, just, stable, and secure.

Ancient wisdom must be paired with lessons from two millennia of history to stay relevant and actionable. The past reveals key turning points that guide what to adopt—and what to avoid.

In this sankraman kaal, the conclave will focus on past lessons to inform a wiser present and future.

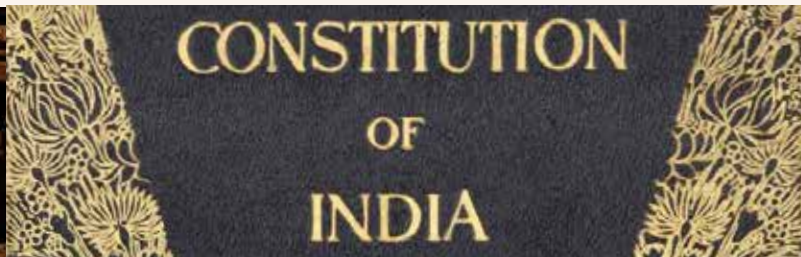

LEGAL THEME
SANKRAMAN KAAL MEIN BHARATIYA SAMVIDHAAN

Hailed as a beacon of democracy by legal luminaries, the Indian Constitution — crafted over 165+ days and inspired by 10+ global charters - stands as a model of resilience.

Yet, ancient Indian traditions hold unexplored constitutional wisdom.

This conclave will spark dialogue by juxtaposing timeless scriptural insights with the 75-year-old Constitution, offering fresh guidance for lawmakers, judiciary, academia, and seekers of wisdom.
